

Account Representative

Excellence – Performance – Teamwork – Integrity – Innovation

Superior Cabinets is currently searching for an Account Representative to join its Saskatoon sales team.

The Account Representative is responsible for efficiently managing homebuilder accounts. Primary responsibilities include; professional selling, kitchen design, order management, customer support and prospecting for new accounts.

As part of our company's commitment to its customers, our team of talented and dedicated sales professionals oversee retail customers or homebuilder accounts in order to provide the very best in customer excellence.

Superior Cabinets has embarked on a journey to transform and lead our industry into the future. Our belief that "it's all about the customer" has led to many exciting changes and opportunities within our company. We don't simply talk about innovation, transformation or customer service, we encourage it and drive it.

We are looking for a sales professional with proven experience in account management and prospecting. Experience within the construction industry and 20/20 Design knowledge are valuable assets.

If these responsibilities match your career aspirations, provide us with the opportunity to show you why joining our company is a decision you won't regret.

As a member of the Superior team you will be provided with on the job training; excellent opportunities for advancement and will work in a fun, friendly and rewarding work environment. If you have the desire to become part of a company whose primary values are its people and customers, then mail, fax or email your resume to:
